SURYA KANT, J.

The petitioner, who is a convict under Section 302/34 IPC, seeks a direction to the respondents to release him on emergency parole to meet and look after his mother, who is stated to be seriously ill and admitted to hospital.

Notice of motion was issued and pursuant thereto reply has been filed on behalf of the respondents, which is taken on record.

In the reply, the respondents have pointed out that the petitioner, at one point of time, was involved in more than twenty one criminal cases though it is not denied that in most of the cases he has been acquitted.

There is also no denial to the fact that the mother of the petitioner is seriously ill and is presently admitted in private ward No.11 of the General Hospital, Hisar.

After hearing learned counsel for the parties, having regard to the past antecedents of the petitioner and with a view to allow the petitioner to meet his ailing mother, this petition is disposed of with a direction that the petitioner shall be taken to the General Hospital in adequate police custody at least twice a week and he will be permitted to spend at least two hours with his ailing mother. The Civil Surgeon at Hisar is further directed to ensure that adequate required treatment is timely provided to the petitioner's ailing mother.

Let a copy of this order, duly authenticated under the signaturs of the Bench Secretary, be supplied to Mr.Tarun Aggarwal, learned Sr.DAG, Haryana for information and necessary compliance.
